Dear Mr. Belden:

I beg leave to send you some cards inviting your attention to an Exhibition and sale at the Salmagundi Club and especially to my contribution a water color picture of one of the remaining old gates of Liverdun in Eastern France not far from Nancy. This ancient walled town was supposed to have been the location of the first Hotel des monnaies or Mint in France and where was coined the "livres" in circulation at that time. Hence the name of the town. The water color was made from my sketches made on the spot. If you know any one interested in the history of Numismatics I should be pleased if they would visit our Exhibition and Auction Sale Feb. 18-19-20th. I know there are

Some members of the Numismatic Society are also interested in the Salmagundi Club and as we are making a special effort to make our shows attractive to those who might honor us with their attendance I take this opportunity of respectfully inviting your kind attention. I have had published recently an announcement of the Morgan Plaquette and of the Saltus medal in the pages of the "American Art News" of which I am correspondent. I am also permanent staff correspondent of "The Studio" published at 44 Leicester Square London and would be pleased if I could feel inclined to forward to me any exclusive information in regard to Numismatic that would be in the nature of art news.

Sincerely Yours

Eugene Castello.
